Call For Undergraduate Research Papers

The Midwest Journal of Undergraduate Research invites students at any college or university to submit manuscripts from any discipline to be considered for publication in the 2023 issue

Submission deadline for review for the 2023 issue: January 15, 2023

Requirements:

- Abstract of no more than 200 words
- 5-35 pages in length (page limit does not include bibliography or graphics)
- 12pt Times New Roman or Calibri font, double spaced
- No color images or diagrams (the publication is in black and white)
- Name at front of manuscript only — no header or footer
- Sequential page numbers required on all pages
- No track changes (mark-ups)
- Submit as a single Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx) file unless the text of your manuscript requires different format (such as extensive mathematical notation, tables, or figures)
- If your manuscript includes figures or images, include a list of figures and identify the file format (e.g., JPEG, TIFF, PDF) of any graphics and images submitted
- Submissions may be from any discipline as long as they are research based
- May use MLA, APA, or Chicago Style.
- Accompanying your submission you must provide the following information: name, school/graduating class, major, discipline of paper, citation style used, phone number, email address, mailing address, the name and contact information of a sponsoring professor
- Research involving human subjects requires documentation of Institutional Review Board approval or exemption
